

While a new electric vehicle (EV) costs more to buy up front, today most drivers in the UK (around 80%) will buy their cars on the used market. Industry intelligence suggests that some EVs...

The adoption of plug-in electric vehicles in the United Kingdom is actively supported by the British government through the plug-in car and van grants schemes and other incentives.

At the end of 2022, car production in the UK fell to its lowest level since 1956. The decrease was due largely to the shortage of semiconductors, but also supply chain issues and global ...

The United Kingdom's EV-Market is thriving, with London, the vibrant capital city, leading the charge towards sustainable transportation. Renowned manufacturers such as Nissan and Brompton are driving innovation in ...

In 2023, the United Kingdom registered approximately 455,200 electric vehicles. Hybrid electric vehicles (HEVs) comprised 49% of all EV sales, indicating a substantial portion of the country's shift toward ...

The UK ranks among the world's top 5 nations for EV readiness and transition. Between 2023 and 2027, 71% of new vehicle launches in the UK are expected to be electric. The UK is among the top 10 countries in the ...

At the end of 2022, car production in the UK fell to its lowest level since 1956. The decrease was due largely to the shortage of semiconductors, but also supply chain issues and global disruptions.

With plans for no new petrol and diesel cars to be sold in the UK after 2030 and a mandate on vehicle manufacturers to sell an increasing number of electric-only models from 2024, there is real momentum ...

Compare market size and growth of UK Electric Vehicle Market with other markets in Automotive Industry

Last year, electric car registrations in the UK topped those of Germany. The number of UK sales (382,000 vehicles) came from growth of 21.4% on 2023, making the UK the largest market for...

Find the most up-to-date statistics about the electric vehicle market in the United Kingdom

Web: <https://www.black-hat.co.za>