

Many citizens protested today in Pristina against the announced increase in the price of electricity. With banners and opposing slogans, the protest began near the facilities of KEDS and ...

During an operation in Pristina, five businesses were caught stealing electricity in a single day. With the intensification of inspections for electricity misuse, the number of cases of ...

Hundreds of business owners blocked roads into Kosovo's capital Pristina on Thursday to protest at a regulatory mandate forcing them to buy power from the open market that they say ...

The KESCO company has said that a breakdown at the Prishtina 2 substation has caused several outlets to be out of service and a certain number of consumers in the capital to be left ...

The operator of the Electricity System, Transmission and Market of Kosovo - KOSTT, has announced that today some neighborhoods will be left without electricity, as an emergency intervention will be ...

The roads will be blocked by vehicles of businesses affected by the government's decision to move to an open electricity market. If demands are not met, the Chamber warns of longer ...

Protests have begun in Pristina against the announced increase in electricity tariffs. The protest began near the KEDS building and is expected to end at the Kosovo Government building. ...

General electricity safety tips Electricity has made our lives easier in many respects, but that does not mean that electricity is not dangerous if we are not careful when using it

From 10:00 to 12:00, businesses protested in Pristina due to dissatisfaction with the process of entering the free electricity market. The protest took place at these main points, where ...

Citizen Sabri Rexha finds the lack of electricity worrying at a time when temperatures have dropped, while criticizing why there has been no investment in this sector.

Web: <https://www.black-hat.co.za>