

This project marks the first publicly accessible charging infrastructure in Guyana - promoting the development of e-mobility, demonstrating potential business opportunities in the electric mobility industry, ...

Guyana has installed its first solar-powered EV charging stations at key locations, marking a significant step towards renewable energy and reduced carbon emissions.

Through its implementing agency, the Guyana Energy Agency (GEA), the government is actively supporting the development of EV infrastructure. The GEA is mandated to manage and maintain six publicly ...

The Government, through its implementing agency, the Guyana Energy Agency (GEA), has been leading the installation and ongoing expansion of electric vehicle (EV) charging infrastructure across Guyana.

The Government of Guyana remains steadfast in advancing the nation's low-carbon transportation agenda through the strategic expansion of electric mobility infrastructure, notably EV charging stations, ...

As part of the initiative, three solar-powered electric vehicle (EV) charging stations will be installed at key locations across regions 5, 6, and 10.

To support the scaling up of EVs, government has invested in the procurement of an additional 14 electric vehicle (EV) charging stations. These units are currently being manufactured and will...

Today, more than 280 electric vehicles are on Guyana's roads, supported by six public charging stations managed by the Guyana Energy Agency. Fourteen more stations are expected to arrive by the end ...

There are currently six publicly accessible EV charging stations across the country. They are located at Amazonia Mall in Providence, the Cheddi Jagan International Airport (CJIA) in Timehri, the Giftland ...

In a significant move towards sustainable transportation, the Government of Guyana has secured US$250,000 in funding from the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) to construct three solar ...

Web: <https://www.black-hat.co.za>