

Renewables are an increasingly important source of energy as countries seek to reduce their CO2 emissions and dependence on imported fossil fuels. Renewables are mainly used to generate ...

Three key documents underpin Eswatini's energy ambition: 1) Eswatini 2050 Energy Masterplan, outlining strategy for energy security, reliability, sustainability, and affordability; 2) 2033 Short-term ...

The transformative journey culminated at the COP26 conference, ...

Prince Lonkokhela, the minister of Natural Resources and Energy, announced at the event that Eswatini is set to increase its electricity generation capacity by 241 megawatts as of July 2026 in an ambitious ...

It seeks to link growth and development with Eswatini's Nationally Determined Contributions (NDC) pledge to generate 50% of its energy from renewable sources by 2030, as well ...

Eswatini is making remarkable strides toward energy independence, a transformation recently spotlighted in Forbes Africa's April/May 2025 edition. Through bold renewable energy ...

The Government of Eswatini through the National Energy Master plan has set an ambitious goal of reducing electricity imports to less than 10 per cent and increasing the contribution ...

There is a significant scope for increased renewable energy use in Swaziland. Renewable energy will play an important role in the world's energy supply in the near future mainly because of ...

The transformative journey culminated at the COP26 conference, where Eswatini committed to an ambitious 50% surge in renewable energy production by 2030. This pledge signifies ...

The National Energy Policy, launched in 2018, aims to increase the share of renewable energy in the national energy mix to 50% by 2030. This ambitious target reflects the government's commitment to ...

This policy brief examines the complex interplay of factors shaping Eswatini's energy landscape, from security to coal development's environmental, economic, and social implications.

Web: <https://www.black-hat.co.za>