

Power will be temporarily cut off in several areas of one of Tashkent's districts. Electricity is expected to be restored by the evening.

An explanation was provided regarding the frequent power outages observed in the capital. "Regional Electric Networks" JSC, while apologizing to consumers for the inconvenience caused, announced ...

This time, the outages are not related to the usual preparations for the autumn-winter season. The main reason is the extreme hot weather and the record loads on the electrical networks ...

Every day, thousands of Tashkent residents face planned power outages. Authorities assure that these are necessary for equipment maintenance, but it doesn't make things easier when ...

In the peak of summer, thousands of consumers are going without electricity for hours at a time. Rolling blackouts have been introduced across the city. Even hospitals, kindergartens, and ...

Year after year, citizens across Uzbekistan face recurring power outages that disrupt daily life, strain household routines, and trigger growing public frustration.

According to the organization, the power outages are mainly related to preparations for the autumn-winter season. Due to repair work being carried out in the areas, electricity supply is ...

Senator Sayyora Abdikarimova has submitted an official inquiry to Minister of Energy Jurabek Mirzamahmudov, requesting a detailed explanation for the recent widespread electricity ...

Uzbekistan's Ministry of Energy has responded to reports of a temporary power outage at Tashkent International Airport, reports UPL. According to the ministry, the issue was caused by a ...

From April 18 to April 22, 2025, certain areas in Tashkent's Almazar and Yunusabad districts will experience temporary power outages. This was announced by "Tashkent City Electric Networks" ...

Web: <https://www.black-hat.co.za>